SUPPOSED TO HAVE DROWNED HIMSELF IN LICKING RIVER

Schultz Wood Is Thought to Have Jumped From Bridge Into Licking River at Covington — Was Popular Business Man.

Several days ago Mr. Schultz Wood, formerly of this city, disappeared from his home in Covington and since that time relatives and officials have been making an effort to locate him.

It is now said that relatives are of the opinion that he ended his own life by jumping from the Licking river bridge between Covington and Newport on the night of his disappearance. His cane and hat are said to have been found on the bridge and passersby say that they saw a man throw himself from the bridge to the river below.

Mr. Wood was a very popular gentleman. He was one of the most industrious men ever in Maysville and had a great many friends here. Because of his close attention to business his nerves had given way and for some years he has been a terrible sufferer. Last summer he was in the home of relatives in Maysville for several months. He took treatment here for a while which seemed to do him good. He returned to his home in Covington, however, and became despondent. He is said to have threatened to take his own life several times.

"POLLYANNA" PLEASES

The dramatization of Mrs. Porter's very popular book, "Pollyanna" given at the Washington Opera House last night pleased the very large audience. The company was a very strong one and the various characters were faithfully portrayed. The audience last night showed that Maysville and Mason county people are hungry for good shows and Manager Russell is doing his best to secure some of the better shows for the balance of the season. The "Pollyanna" company left here for Lexington.

MUCH TOBACCO BEING SHIPPED HERE

Within the past week there has been quite a bit of tobacco shipped into Maysville from other nearby markets to be resold. A large quantity of tobacco has been arriving over railroad in bogheads and the steamers too have delivered much here.

BOLSHEVISM RAPPED BY THE REPUBLICANS AT COMMITTEE MEET

Republican National Committeemen Rap Socialism, Bolshevism and Government Ownership—Roosevelt Is Praised.

Chicago, January 11—Declaring for universal female suffrage by constitutional amendment and applauding speeches condemning Socialism, Bolshevism and Government ownership, the Republican National Committee yesterday conferred on Chairman Will H. Hays, who opened the meeting with a prayer, what was taken to be full power to conduct affairs of the party in its efforts to defeat the Democrats in the next national election.

Resolutions laudatory of Theodore Roosevelt were adopted as introduced by John T. King, of Connecticut, and plans were made at the suggestion of Chairman Hays to erect a permanent monument to the dead in the popular subscription. The Democratic national administration was denounced by committeemen for what was termed its tendency to Socialism and for placing control of the Government departments in the hands of the minority of the South, while the majority of the North paid 90 per cent of the taxes as worded by Gov. Beekman, of Rhode Island.

It was declared by Chairman Hays and others that it was too early to consider a candidate for President, but many names were mentioned in the informal talk of committeemen in a separate meeting of Illinois Republicans made arrangements to persuade Gov. Frank O. Lowden to announce himself as a candidate.

Two women took part in the deliberations as holders of proxies, and their assistance was sought in all the doings of the meeting.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, of Illinois, chairman of the Woman's Executive Committee, read a long report outlining plans for woman's organizations in every State and for the active participation of women in the national affairs of the party.

Gov. Beekman, of Rhode Island, referred to the recent victory of the Republicans in the congressional elections and said that the people of the North were tired of paying 90 per cent of the taxes and having it expended by the minority of the South, which dominated the Democratic National Administration.

Gov. Burnquist, of Minnesota, denounced anarchy and Socialism and said the hope of the country for the future was in the election of a Republican President. He spoke of the activity of the Nonpartisan League in the Northwest and said the sympathy of the Democratic party had been with that organization.

Gov. Harding, of Iowa, criticized the Democratic National Administration for its extravagance and inefficiency and referred to W. G. McAdoo, Federal Director of Railroads, as "the Crown Prince."

"This is too big and too great a country to be ruled by one corner of it," said Governor Harding. "I hope the Republican Congress will see that the railroads are returned to their owners without delay."

Congressman Royall Johnson, of South Dakota, who appeared in the uniform of an army officer, and others made similar addresses.

The committee gave Chairman Flays a vote of confidence and authorized him to name an executive and other committees at his discretion.

The committee settled a contest over the national chairmanship in Louisiana, which has been pending since the last Republican National Convention in 1916, by seating Emil Kuntz, a negro. L. C. Labit was the unsuccessful contestant. Both factions agreed to abide by the decision of the committee.

$31.00 IS WEEKLY AVERAGE OF LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET

Colonel William Mitchell, Supervisor of Sales, says Maysville Market Was Never Better Than at the Present Demand For Good Leaf Is Keen.

TOBACCO GROWER HAS MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED HERE

Lewis County Man Who Delivered Tobacco to the Maysville Market Cannot Be Located—Mules Left In Warehouse Stable Since Jan. 3.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort was Friday evening asked to assist in locating John Bailey, of near Petersville, Lewis county, who very mysteriously disappeared here during the past week.

Bailey, who is a farmer and teamsman, delivered a crop of tobacco to a neighbor to the Farmers and Planters warehouse company in this city on Friday, January 3, and since that time his team has been in the warehouse's stables where it has been cared for expecting his return at any time.

Relatives have become worried about his disappearance and the police have been asked to assist in locating him here. Some fear that he has met with foul play or has been drowned in the Ohio river.

Bailey did not collect at the warehouse for the tobacco he delivered here for his neighbor and which was sold. The police are making a very thorough investigation in an attempt to trace his movements while in Maysville.

ARRESTED ON VAGRANCY CHARGES

Louis Romine, of the East end, was before Judge John L. Whitaker in Police Court this afternoon on a charge of vagrancy. The case was continued until Monday on account of the failure of some witnesses to appear. Complaint was lodged against Romine, who, it is charged, has failed to properly provide for his family.

SHIPPING LAW TO BE TESTED

Frankfort, Ky., January 11—A writ of prohibition was filed in the Court of Appeals today to restrain Circuit Judge William Young, of Morehead, from trying the case of the Commonwealth against the Adams Express Company. The company has been indicted ten times for delivering intoxicating liquors in local option territory to known inebriates. The purpose of the writ is to get a construction of the statute prohibiting the delivery of intoxicating liquors to inebriates by express companies.

MANY INTERESTED IN Y. M. C. A. MOVEMENT

District Secretary Zerfoss, of the Lexington Y. M. C. A., who has been in Maysville for the past several days, has created much interest in the Y. M. C. A. among local people and it is more than likely that at some near future date a survey of the business men and residents of the city and county will be made to learn whether or not a local organization is desired here.

LAST WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICE

The last of the Week of Prayer services will be held this evening at the First M. E. Church, South, in West Second street. The sermon will be by Rev. A. F. Stahl, of the Christian Church. Dr. J. J. Dickey preached at the Third Street M. E. Church Friday evening to a very appreciative audience.

FUNERAL SATURDAY

The funeral of Mr. Robert Helvestine, of the Orangeburg neighborhood, who died Friday at his home, was held Saturday afternoon and burial was made in the Maysville cemetery.

Hines was assis. eral under McAdoo. Railroad Administr. counsel and within two made assistant director gen.

Hines is a Kentuckian, and time was a special attorney for Louisville & Nashville R. R. He was general counsel and chairman of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe R. R.

At the time he entered the Railroad Administration, a year ago, he was in general law practice in New York.

Hines has been the actual acting head of the railways under McAdoo. He has been rated one of the greatest lawyers in the country, and his executive ability is held high in railroad circles.

The appointment of Hines is looked upon by many as forecasting the administration's policy toward the railroads. Hines is known to favor the return of the roads to private ownership, but with a large measure of government control.

BURIED HERE SATURDAY

The body of the late L. R. Key, who died several days ago at his home in Newport, was brought here Saturday morning and taken direct to the Maysville cemetery for burial. Mr. Key for many years lived in the Stone Lick neighborhood. He was a son of the late John R. Key.

The many local friends of Rev. J. F. Ruggles, will be very glad to know that his son, Joseph, who has been very ill with pneumonia at the home of his father in Lewis county, is now considerably improved.

Mrs. Jewel Teegarden returned from Brooksville Friday where she has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jett. They accompanied her home and attended the show "Pollyanna."

members of America gave their sons to the army Germany. This new army is one of peace and on children from twelve to sixteen years old are be-and for the United States Garden Army, which is going to million dollars worth of vegetables next summer for home ption. At that time the country will be sending about two on tons of food to Europe each month. It will help the government immeasurably in keeping its promise to starving Europe if we have plenty of home-grown products to eat here. We do not send vegetables and fruit abroad. They will have to take the place, at our tables, of the things that are exportable.

Fifteen trained organizers are, now in the field to build up this garden army. It will be composed of boys and girls. They will be taught their gardening as a regular part of their school program.

Secretary Lane and the Department of the Interior have mapped out the plans, aided by the Bureau of Education at Washington, D.
C. It is not an untried experiment. This year a million and a half of the war gardens of the country were made by school children, who are enrolled at Washington as soldiers of the Garden Army. On an average, each child raised ten dollars worth of vegetables.

In the schools, the subject will be studied as seriously as arithmetic and other "indoor" lessons. Teachers will be given intensive courses in garden work; garden supervisors will be appointed, and lesson leaflets about gardening will be written by experts "called to the colors" by the Bureau at Washington. The gardens will be in the city parks, country fields, and home yards.

This movement is one of the good results that come from the evil of war. All Americans have a new ideal of usefulness. Many of the things they learned to do in war will be advantageously done in peace. War gardens will become victory gardens. The food problem is the one great question that did not end with the signing of the armistice, and that will not end with the conclusion of peace.

The housewives who have observed the requests of the Food Administration and have saved food by economical buying, careful serving, and changing recipes to suit conditions, are now asked to encourage their young sons and daughters to enlist in the United States Army. It will be healthful work for the children and will make them more useful citizens. It will also increase the food in America's storehouse and enable us to fulfill the Food Administration's promise to send 20,000,000 tons of food to a famished Europe.

SECRETARY OF EDUCATION IS FAVERED HERE

Educational Division of Maysville Chamber of Commerce Endorses Plan to Give Education a Place in the Cabinet.

The following communication was read at the recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Directors and upon motion, the Secretary was instructed to communicate the endorsement.

MRS. SANFORD'S MESSAGE TO WORKING WOMEN

Laurel, Miss.— "Eight years ago I was suffering with pains and weakness caused by a female trouble. I had headaches, chills and fevers, and was unable to do my work part of the time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me and I took twelve bottles of it, and my health was good ever since. I am able to run the machine and do dressmaking besides my housework. You are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman."
—Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

Thousands of women drag along from day to day in just such a miserable condition as was Mrs. Sanford, or suffering from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headache, nervousness, or "the blues."

Such women should profit by Mrs.
Sanford's experience and try this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find relief from their sufferings as she did.

For special suggestions in regard to your ailment write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their long experience is your service.

making besides my housework. You
are at liberty to publish my letter if it will help some poor suffering woman."
—Mrs. J. C. SANFORD, 1237 Second Ave., Laurel, Miss.

Therefore, he it resolved that the Maysville Chamber of Commerce favor the enactment into law of the United States Bill 4987 to create a Department of Education under a cabinet officer and providing for federal assistance to the states in vocational, physical, and other forms of education.

Further be it resolved that our Secretary be directed to send a copy of these resolutions to Senator Hoke camp, send them my address and have them to write to me. How is Harry and Edna? Tell them I am going to write to them just as soon as I get time. How is "Sailor" and sister, Nell? Tell them I would love to see them all.

Mother don't worry about me for I have plenty to eat, and a good place to sleep. I don't know when we will start for the States. I don't think it will be long, and then I will have lots of interesting things to tell you. Keep on writing for a letter from home is always welcome.

How did Dad's crop turn out? Tell Dad to worry along and do the best he can for Bill will be home some day.

Mother be sure and tell John Adams and all the other boys to write to me. How is Dimmitt Henderson and Little Hilbraith? Tell Gertrude and Lee to help Dad all they can till I get back.

Well mother I want you to take good care of yourself and don't worry about me. Tell Elizabeth to write as often as she can. Mother I know your Xmas will not be a happy one as none of us will be with you, but then we will trust in the Lord that we will all be together another Xmas.

I will write you a longer and more interesting letter when I get time. I will close wishing you a merry Xmas. and a happy New Year.

From your loving son,

PRIVATE WILLIAM R. DICE.

Co. A 147 Machine Gun Battalion,

Somewhere in France.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Neal of the West end have received the following letter from their son, now in France:

Somewhere in France.

December 14, 1918.

Dear Mother and family It is with great pleasure I now take in trying to write you a few lines this p. m. letting you know this leaves me in the best of health and hope when this reaches you, all will be the same.

Mother you cannot imagine how much of the world I have seen since leaving home August 15 and I do not suppose

I have seen half of it yet. This sure has been a great trip for me.

We left New York on the 13th of November and arrived at London, England, the 23rd. I expected to get sea sick but never. Have been traveling ever since we left the ship.

I do not know but I think the next move we make will be to come back to the States.

The world seems so strange over here. This is pay day, I have a pocket full of money and haven't any money either. I still have Roy Neuman and Russell Muse with me. Will Phillips is over here somewhere and Bob Emmitt I guess he has been mu-tered out by this time.

We are in the Southern part of France. It doesn't get cold here but rains all the time, it is like a swamp around here, we wear hip boots all the time. I cannot figure why they are keeping us over here as we haven't done anything since we came over.

The nearest town is Bordeaux and we are at Camp Bassen.

There is plenty of good wine over here to drink.

Mother do not worry about me as I am o. k. and will be home some day before very long I hope.

I guess brother Tom is having a fine time this season, I sure would like to be there with him. I received a letter from Tom and Violet since I came over, it sure is great to get mail over here. Tell them all to write to me. Give them all my love also wishing them a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Well as I have told you all I know for this time I will close, wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year. From your devoted son, BEN.

BE CAREFUL WITH YOUR STAMP BOOK

Do not paste the old green $5 stamps of 1918 in the new folder. If you do you lose last year's interest, for the 1918 stamp mature in 1923, while the new ones will mature in 1924. If you have certificate partly filled with 1918 War Savings Stamps, save it as it is and get a new folder for the new stamps.

The National War Savings Stamps Committee is planning a new departure for 1919. This is to issue fully paid-up certificates in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000, to be issued without stamp, for sale to those who wish to invest larger sums. They will be sold on the same plan, the $100 certificate selling for from $83 to $84, depending on the month in which it is purchased; the $500 certificate for from $415 to $420 and the $1,000 certificate for from $830 to $840.

This certificate will have all the advantages of a Liberty Bond and none of the disadvantages, such as coupon clipping. As the War Stamps and certificates will pay 4 per cent. interest, compounded quarterly, the total income from them will be about the same as that of a Liberty Bond—4% per cent.

Thirty million persons purchased War Savings Stamps in the United States in 1918.

Administrator Fred M. issued the following bulletin County Food Administrative state:

has been reported to this office many merchants throughout the state are of the impression that the "maximum margins" on sale of food commodities by retailers to consumers have been withdrawn. These margins are still in effect and retailers who do not adhere to them lay themselves liable to the penalties prescribed by the Food Administration for not observing its orders.

A rumor has also come to this office to the effect that wholesale and retail food dealers are charging any price they see fit for wheat mill feeds, while it is true that the margins prescribed in our Bulletin No. 76 on sales of wheat mill feeds by dealers to retailers, and by retailers to consumers have been withdrawn. These margins are still in effect and retailers
who do not adhere to them lay themselves liable to the penalties prescribed by the Food Administration for not observing its orders.

He was taken Saturday morning before a U. S. Commissioner and denied both guilty. A hearing of his case was set for January 21.

REPUBLICAN IS HEAD OF STATE TAX COMMISSION

Frankfort, Ky., January 11.—James A. Scott, of Pikeville, a Republican, was elected chairman of the State Tax Commission yesterday. He has been a member of the board since its creation, having been appointed to the place by Governor Stanley. Ben Ringo of Owensboro, the new member of the commission who is a Democrat, declined the chairmanship at this time with the statement that he thought the chairman of the commission should be a member who was entirely familiar with the workings of the commission.

Inasmuch as he is a new member and not so familiar with the work of the commission as Chairman Scott, he said he felt that he could not do the commission nor himself justice by taking the chairmanship.

EDUCATORS TO DISCUSS TIME-SAVING PLAN

State Superintendent Calls Meeting of City School Heads to Plan to Make Up Lost Time—Maysville Idea To Be Explained.

Prof. V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has called a meeting of educators and City Superintendents of Schools to be held in the city of Louisville on next Thursday to devise some means of making up the large amount of time lost in the schools because of the influenza epidemic.

The great success which is being met in Maysville with the plan of City Superintendent Caplinger has attracted wide attention over the state and Prof. Caplinger has been urged by Superintendent Gilbert to attend the meeting on next Thursday and explain the Maysville idea.

Other educators will express their opinions about the matter and it is expected that my means of the meeting some definite plan can be decided upon by which all of the schools of the state can make up a great part, if not all, of the time lost because of the "flu."

SUIT INTERESTS THE OIL FRATERNITY

Judge A. M. J. Cochran in Federal Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky Friday ordered a final decree to be entered in the suit of H. J. Ziegler and Ell Howell against James B. Hopkins and others that will be of interest to oil promoters and others in the Eastern Kentucky oil fields. The order enjoins defendants pre-emptively from drilling or removing gas or oil from fifty acres of land in Lee county.
Defendants are likewise enjoined from interfering with plaintiffs in drilling for or marketing oil and gas taken from the land from which the plaintiffs are held to be the owners.
The suit was hard fought on both sides and has been in litigation for two years.

SHIPPED WHISKY INTO INDIANA IS THE CHARGE THAT'S MADE

Man Who Claims His Home Is In Maysville, Is Arrested in Cincinnati on Charge of Shipping Liquor Into Dry Territory.

Robert Houston, aged 47, who said his home was in Maysville, several days ago told detective in Cincinnati that he was shipping liquor into the state of Indiana. He was unaware they were officers. They met him on another occasion and he said that he was taking whiskey to Shelyville, Ind.

The officers shadowed Houston for several days and say that they saw him check a suitcase and a shotgun case at the Cincinnati Union depot.
The officers examined the suitcase and the shotgun case, and found both packed with whiskey. Houston was arrested and held for the United States authorities.

He was taken Saturday morning before a U. S. Commissioner and denied both guilty. A hearing of his case was set for January 21.

NAT B. SEWELL GETS BIG STATE POSITION

Appointed to Succeed Judge S. W.
Hager on Workmen's Compensation Board.

Frankfort, Ky., January 11—Selecting, as he believed, the best man for the place, Governor Stinney today appointed Nat B. Sewell of London a member of the workmen's compensation board. Sewell will fill out the unexpired term of the late Judge S.
W. Hager of Owensboro, and in April he will be reappointed for a term of four years.

Who will succeed him as state inspector and examiner is the question now uppermost. Senator Seiden R.
Glenn of Eddyville was here today and declined the appointment. He cannot afford to give up his business at Eddyville to accept.

Sewell is one of the representative mountain Democrats in this administration. He has been a Democratic leader in the Eleventh district for twenty years. He is an editor, editor, publisher, lawyer, mine operator, and although he is not a member of the legislature he was very instrumental in bringing about the reform school book legislation in this state.
As state inspector and examiner he has made an enviable record, and his friends expect him to maintain his high standard of work on the workmen's compensation board.

NEXT SESSION OF COURT IS IN MARCH

The Mason Circuit Court will hold its next regular session of court beginning the fourth Monday in March.
All of the other terms of court begin on the first Monday in the month except the spring term which always begins on the fourth Monday. As there is more vacation between the winter and the spring terms than between any of the other terms, the spring term is usually the largest of the year.

LIBRARY REPORT

During the month just closed the Public Library had 704 visitors and 448 books were taken out.

Mr. Roger Devine, of Lexington, was here Friday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Henry Otto.
